TRAYS

Topázio is known for its finely worked filigree decorative friezes. Designer Sam Baron chose to celebrate this tradition with a multifunctional tray set featuring layered friezes in Napoleonic Empire-style, King John V and art deco patterns.

Sam Baron

Sam Baron has been director of the design department at Benetton's Fabbrica research centre since 2006. Much of his work is a reinterpretation of traditional manufacturing techniques. sambaron.fr

Topázio

Founded in Porto in 1934, Topázio is renowned for its silver work and fine filigree work. It now sells handcrafted silver and silver-plated pieces in more than 20 countries. topazio.pt

Tray chic

We're spirited away by these sleek drinking accoutrements

FLASKS

Designed to be filled with the grappa of Italian distiller Nonino, these metal drinking flasks by Dutch designers Scholten & Baijings feature a classic silhouette and come with a perfectly integrated drinking cup and a palette inspired by different grape varieties.

Scholten &amp; Baijings

Stefan Scholten and Carole Baijings' designs combine colour sensibility with a minimalist approach to shapes and a penchant for the grid. The duo have produced work for the likes of Hay and Georg Jensen. scholtenbaijings.com

Nonino

Family-run distiller Nonino has produced grappa from its base in Friuli, Italy, since 1897. It created single-grape grappa over 40 years ago, and has also branched out into making cocktails using grappa as a base. grappanonino.it
