

Messaggero Veneto

ITALIAN TALENT AWARD

The House of Representatives awards Giannola Nonino

Another important acknowledgement for the Friulian lady of grappa.

PERCOTO

A prestigious acknowledgement for the Friulian lady of grappa, Giannola Bulfoni Nonino who, in the House of Representatives, at the presence of Dario Franceschini the Minister of Cultural Heritage, was awarded the prize “Italian talent award 2017” for the category “Enterprise and culture”. The prize, promoted by the “Italian talent association” presided by Ms. Sandra Cioffi MP, vice-president of Telefono azzurro, in collaboration with GoodinItaly web TV directed by Stefania Giacobini, is dedicated to the journalists and the Italian excellences that promote the agricultural and food made in Italy, a strategic sector for the Country which is constantly growing because of the export of Italian products everywhere in the world. Giannola Nonino, Cavaliere del Lavoro, Bellisario prizewinner and Leonardo prizewinner, together with her husband Benito has devoted all her life to research, so managing to achieve the unbelievable change of status of grappa on the same level of the noblest distillates in the world. Grappa Nonino this year celebrates 120 years of life. The Nonino family, quality grappa ambassador in the world is also an excellence in the promotion of culture with the Nonino Prize: the award to Giannola was delivered by Minister Franceschini in the hands of her daughter Antonella. Later the guests toasted with the Giannola Style Nonino Aperitif.