

bargiornale

MATTIA PASTORI

Nonino bartender of the year prizewinner

Born in Pavia in 1984 he started working in the family bar in the afternoon after school. After a training period in the bars of Pavia – fundamental the meeting with Fabio Firmo of the Pozzo American Bar – he was offered the chance of working in a luxury hotel: the Park Hyatt in the Galleria of Milan. After an experience in California he returned to Italy to work at the Bamboo Bar of the Armani Hotel and at the Mandarin Oriental. He contributed to the success of the Bulk, the bar of the new five star luxury Hotel Viu of Giancarlo Morelli, starred chef and entrepreneur with restaurants and consulting activities in many parts of the world. Mattia Pastori is the only in Italy who has won twice the Italian finals of the Diageo World Class, a competition that crowns every year the best in the world.