

Even good grappas must always demonstrate a certain delicacy, and it is no coincidence that some distilleries feature women at the forefront. Just think of (…) the Nonino sisters and their mother Giannola! They have done so much for single-varietal grappa, made from a single vine variety.